1. About 50 farmers in the vicinity of Staropatitsa, a village 40 kilometers from the Yugoslav border, formed the nucleus of a resistance movement against the Bulgarian Regime within the past two months.
2. The group has undertaken no sabotage or propaganda activity as yet because the farmers have no contact with similar groups inside or outside Bulgaria with whom they could coordinate their efforts. In an attempt to establish a coordinated front, they have contacted the Bulgarian National Committee asking for guidance in future moves against the Bulgarian Government.
